

Meet Julie

Julie and her husband Den, live in a friendly and comfortable home in Baldavis. They have six adult children, and they enjoy a relaxed happy lifestyle. Their home is quite cosy and faces a big park with walking paths. Julie and Den love welcoming people and providing a calm, safe place for someone who needs a break or a change of scenery. Both of them have worked previously in the disability sector and see hosting as a positive way to encourage independence and inclusion.

They enjoy:

- Travelling, gardening, and cooking
- Going to dinner with friends.
- Puzzles, crafts, and visiting the zoo
- Julie likes to go on a walk with her daughter and her daughter's beautiful Alaskan Husky, Ana.
- Enjoy supporting individuals to engage in everyday activities and community outings at their own pace.

Location Highlights

- Faces large parklands and walking paths.
- Skate Park across the way .
- 10 min drive to the beach
- 2 min drive to the shopping centre
- Quiet, modern single storey home

A home where independence and belonging go hand in hand.
